

The Lord-Lieutenant's
Young Person of the Year
 10th ANNIVERSARY
 2016

This Award seeks to identify and reward the very best examples of achievement by young people in Leicester and Leicestershire. Five prizes to the value of £500 each will be awarded to reflect outstanding achievement in the following categories:

- Young Braveheart of the Year
- Young Volunteer of the Year
- Young Most Improved Sports Person of the Year
- Young Artist of the Year (The Joe Humphries Memorial Award)

- Young Writer of the Year

inspired award

During the four years of commemorating the centenary of the First World War this Award carries a special category dedicated to that commemoration. This year the special award will be given to a young writer who puts themselves in the place of a new recruit.

Do you know a young person, aged 13-19, who you feel should be recognised by the Lord-Lieutenant's Award?

Please pick up a leaflet and submit your nomination by 31st January 2016. Further details are available from:
